

Tour Schedule of Valley of Flowers

Thank You for travelling with EziiTours! The following time table will guide you.

Nature lover's paradise - The Valley of Flowers

A discovery made by British Traveller Frank Smith in 1931 - Valley of Flowers is literally the paradise in India. Towering Himalayan peaks looking over the valley of flowers set in the tranquil environment and situated at an altitude of 3800 meters from the sea level. The Valley of Flowers is nestled in the upper expanses of Bhyundar Ganga near Joshimath in Garhwal region. The lower reaches of Bhyundar Ganga near Gobindghat are known as Bhyundar Valley. The Valley of Flowers is in the Pushpawati valley 23 km north-northwest of Nanda Devi Park. Valley of flowers offers an unparalleled beauty and has acknowledged by renowned mountaineers, botanists, and in literature. With millions of species of wild flowers such as saxifrage, sedums, lilies, poppy, calendula, daisies, geranium, zinnia and petunia, the valley of flowers also holds many streams that add on to the natural beauty. The rich bio diversity of valley of flowers is also home for several species of butterflies and insects too. The valley of flowers was declared a national park in 1982 and now it is a World Heritage Site.
